DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on January 3, 2008, has been entered. Claims 1-26 are pending.

Response to Amendment

2. The rejection of claims 1-10 and 21-26 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, is withdrawn in view of applicant's amendments.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed January 3, 2008, have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

As noted in the Final Rejection (mailed 10/30/2007) and the Advisory Action (mailed 1/21/2008), none of the registration data appear to correspond to a secure data communication PATH. A username and password combination, digital certificate, digital signatures or other verification means to not affect the routing of communication between the client and the server. Further, as noted in the Final Rejection and Advisory Action, the secure data communication path appears to be described as a single secure port to customer site 150 rather than any particular parameter associated with a communication path between the server and specific remote data processing devices. (See Specification p. 5, paragraph 2.) Thus, the specification of the PATH appears to occur outside of the disclosed registration process, which instead appears to only include an exchange of authentication credentials independent of communications PATH setup.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Independent claims 1, 11, and 21 have been amended to recite the receipt and registration of data including “data corresponding to a secure data communication path between the server and remote data processing device.” (Claims 1, 11, and 21 (emphasis added).) However, the originally filed disclosure (including the drawings and originally filed claims) does not appear to disclose such data being part of the registration process. (See Specification p. 4, last paragraph, continuing onto p. 5.) Specifically, the registration process described in the specification includes: model number, version of software, when to receive uploads, manual or automatic application of the updates or fixes, and credentials (i.e., username and password combination, digital certificate, digital signatures or other verification means). (Id.) None of these data appear to correspond to a secure data communication path. Further, the secure data communication path appears to be described as a single secure port to customer site 150 rather than any particular parameter associated with a communication path between the server and specific remote data processing devices. (See Specification p. 5, paragraph 2.)
